

After prayerful consideration, the decision has been made to cancel our Vacation Bible School this year. This was not an easy decision but due to restrictions, guidelines and limited space on campus, we feel this is for the best. We are saddened to do this but we must consider the safety and well-being of our kids, volunteers and community.